Lodge And Association Officers Can Share Their Ideas For "Making Change" At Special Seminar January 5 - 7, 2012

These special sessions will combine presentations from Moose International staff with opportunities for participants to share their comments and ideas on shaping the future of the Moose fraternity. Participation is limited to current Lodge and Association Officers and all Past Governors of the Order.

The $250 registration fee for one participant in a room, or $175 each for two participants sharing a room, includes three nights accommodations at the Golden Nugget Hotel in downtown Las Vegas, one slot tournament entry, a seminar shirt and materials for the seminar, for each participant. Additional slot tournament entries are available for $20 each and extra shirts may be purchased for $30 each. ALL registration for this special seminar will be done online. No mailed or faxed entries will be accepted. For additional information and to register for the "Making Change" Special Seminar please visit
