All Moose Legion training, as stated in Moose Legion Code of Rules, must be completed within a 60 day window of taking office.

Policy outlined in Moose Legion Code of Rules indicates that ALL training for Moose Legion is valid for three years. Anyone who intends to hold office after training dates have “expired” must take the appropriate training again. Specifically, should the officer’s training expire while holding office, he may finish out the term without retraining. However, training must be taken again if he plans to hold office during the next fiscal year. For example, Jefferson Moose Legion 9’s Secretary last completed SEC training on 6/10/2014. His training technically expires on 6/10/2017, yet based on the above policy, he may finish out the 2017/2018 year without taking the training again. He must, however, attend class again if he intends to hold office for the 2018/2019 year. Training for that term, ideally, should be completed prior to taking office; but as noted in paragraph 1, he will have 60 days after taking office to complete the required training.

There is an online versions of 2-HOTT available on MI’s website. This class is a great alternative when a member cannot attend class in person. While it is highly recommended that members attend instructor-led training, it is acceptable to complete the online training even when it is the member’s first experience with the class.
