

Moose International Disaster Relief Fund

Application Form

The Supreme Council has designated funding that will assist lodges impacted by natural disasters in the form of property damage and loss of business due to temporary closure.

Please read and complete ALL information below to increase your chances of receiving funds!

To be eligible for assistance from the MDRF, Fraternal Units must meet the following requirements:

- Lodge or Chapter must be in good standing with its Association and Moose International.
- The Lodge must be covered by an active insurance policy and current with its property and liability payments.
- The Lodge or Chapter must have incurred loss or damage due solely to a natural disaster and not from damage or deterioration caused by gradual processes such as decay, pollution or erosion, etc. or actions by an individual or object unrelated to a natural disaster.
- The Lodge/Chapter will include any photographs of the damage for reference
- The Lodge or Chapter must submit this MDRF application for financial assistance
- Return Form and any supporting materials to disasterfund@mooseintl.org or fax to 630-966-2251. Questions? Call 630-966-2226
