

AWARD OF ACHIEVEMENT CEREMONY INSTRUCTIONS

The Award of Achievement plaque has been mailed to all Chapters who have qualified for the first time. In addition, the 2018-2019 coin has been mailed to those who qualified last year.

In the event the Chapter qualified for the first time during the 2018-2019 Chapter year, please use the Award of Achievement Ceremony as written in the Meeting Procedures and Agendas book on pages 86 and 97. In the event there is not currently an Award of Achievement certificate on the wall, the Senior Regent shall begin with the introduction of the Junior Graduate Regent.

The Ceremony takes place at the Higher Degrees - College of Regents Committee Activity Night after the Draping of the Charter and before the recognition of new Collegian(s).

The current Junior Graduate Regent discusses plans for the ceremony at a meeting of the Board of Officers.

Prior to the Chapter meeting, the Junior Graduate Regent shall have the coin inserted into the Award of Achievement Plaque. The Award will be placed at the podium.

Only the current Award of Achievement plaque with coins inserted in the appropriate place is placed on display during the Chapter year.

The Past Regent referenced in the ceremony is the Junior Graduate Regent from last year. The Junior Graduate Regent referenced is the current Junior Graduate Regent.
