Chastain Returns to Site of His First Cup Series Win

On March 27, 2022, Ross Chastain, the eighth-generation watermelon farmer from Alva, Florida battled three-wide over a thrilling final lap on the 20-turn, 3.41-mile Austin, Texas road course to capture his first career NASCAR Cup Series victory. Our Moose Fraternity driver returns to the scene of that triumph this weekend when the Cup Series holds its third annual race at COTA on Sunday, March 26th. The No. 1 driver arrives third in the point standings after a 13th-place finish this past Sunday at Atlanta Motor Speedway. The race can be seen at 3:30pm ET on FOX.

"When I look back at our first win, I think of all of the people who helped me get here. My family, sponsors, team owners, all of the men and women who have spent time trying to help me put everything together so I could race," recalled Chastain.

"It would've been so easy for me to give up and go back and work at the farm. Instead, I kept working at it, and kept trying and so many people were there to help me."
