NASCAR Playoffs Continue This Weekend for Chastain

Moose Fraternity and Trackhouse Racing's Ross Chastain finished 11th in Sunday night's 500-mile NASCAR Cup Series race at Darlington (S.C.) Raceway. The Darlington race marked the first of 10 playoff races. Two races remain in the first round of the playoffs, when four of the 16 playoff drivers will be eliminated. Chastain ran at the front of the field throughout Sunday night's race, battling for the lead and scoring points in both stages. His finish could have been a few spots better, but he was forced to save fuel in the closing laps and dropped from seventh to 11th.

"We were the best Chevrolet for a lot of the night. We were racing around the No. 5 (Kyle Larson), which we haven't been doing much this year, so that was step one if we want to do anything this year in the playoffs. We had to be faster and we were." – Ross Chastain

Chastain, who partners with the Moose Fraternity, moved up from 11th going into the playoffs to 8th place following the race. He travels to the St. Louis area this weekend to race in the Enjoy Illinois 300 at the World Wide Technology Raceway.

Prior to the race, Ross will be conducting a Meet and Greet in Nashville, IL on Saturday, September 6th from 12pm to 1pm at Lodge 2560's BBQ for the Backstoppers, which will be held at the Community Center in Nashville, 457 S Washington St, Nashville, IL.

Members looking to watch Ross in this week's Enjoy Illinois 300 can catch the race this Sunday, September 7th at 3:00pm ET on the USA Network.
