Moose Membership Continues to Grow

Through five months of the current fiscal year, Moose membership continues to grow with a year-over-year gain of nearly 23,000 members. New member production has helped push that number up, as members have signed more candidates in four out of the five months this year compared to last year. If this trend continues, Moose membership will show an increase for five straight years. Lodge membership now stands at 930,297 at the end of the month of September.

Chastain Just Misses Playoff Advancement

Ross Chastain had two solid stage results in Charlotte in an effort to try and collect enough bonus points to advance him into the Playoff Round of 8. He ran hard throughout the end of the race to make up for an earlier driving error, where he made a scheduled pit stop on lap 87 but was caught speeding while exiting pit road and forced to make a pass-through penalty under green. Chastain powered through and made an effort to get his track position back and he was well on his way to advancing in the playoffs until the closing laps and a 21st-place finish at last Sunday's Bank of America ROVAL 400.

"I would say a month before the playoffs until now, this team gave me everything I needed to get to the Round of Eight. We have a team that could go fight for the top-four. We had a top-four car, and we were a top-eight car a month ago and I just took that away from us today with some unforced errors. A terrible body of work today. When you work 20 years, studying and try to be ready for these moments and you fail, it's a terrible feeling. But I will get up tomorrow and get back to work."

– Ross Chastain

Although he is out of the playoffs for this year, Ross continues to race each weekend through the end of the season. This Sunday, Ross will be in Las Vegas for the South Point 400. Later this month, on October 26th, Ross will sport the red and black Moose Fraternity colors for a final time in 2025 when he races in the Xfinity 500 at Martinsville Speedway. Chastain, Trackhouse Racing and the Moose Fraternity have also extended their partnership for two more seasons.

Members looking to cheer Ross on to victory during the South Point 400 at the Las Vegas Motor Speedway can catch the race this Sunday, October 12th at 5:30pm ET on the USA Network.
