NASCAR Cup Series Starts and Chastain Represents The Moose Again

The 2026 NASCAR Cup Series season starts this Sunday in North Carolina and the Moose has once again partnered with Trackhouse Racing and Ross Chastain to help promote the Fraternity nationally, as they have for the past several years. Ross will drive the red and black Moose Fraternity No. 1 Chevrolet during four races this upcoming season and will have the Moose logos on his car and firesuit during the rest of the season as well.

The four Moose races are: Sunday, March 22nd in the Goodyear 400 at Darlington Raceway (SC); Sunday, July 12th in the Quaker State 400 Available at Walmart at Echopark Speedway (GA); Saturday, September 19th in the Bass Pro Shops Night Race at Bristol Motor Speedway (TN); and Sunday, November 1st in the Xfinity 500 at Martinsville Speedway (VA)

Now is the time to start planning lodge watch parties to cheer Ross on and invite qualified friends, relatives and guests to get in on the excitement. Check the Moose International website (www.mooseintl.org) for information throughout the season.

Tune into FOX this Sunday, February 1st at 8:00pm ET to watch Ross Chastain and the Cook Out Clash at Bowman Gray Stadium.
