NASCAR Clash at Bowman Gray Stadium in NC Postponed Until This Evening

The 2026 NASCAR Cup Series season was supposed to start this past Sunday in North Carolina, but snow in the area has caused the race to be postponed twice. The Cook Out Clash at Bowman Gray Stadium is now scheduled to take place tonight, February 4, at 6:00pm ET. Members can watch the race on FOX.

Ross Chastain will drive in this race and will also be in the red and black Moose Fraternity No. 1 Chevrolet during four races this upcoming season. He will have the Moose logos on his car and firesuit during the rest of the season as well. The four Moose races are: Sunday, March 22nd in the Goodyear 400 at Darlington Raceway (SC); Sunday, July 12th in the Quaker State 400 Available at Walmart at Echopark Speedway (GA); Saturday, September 19th in the Bass Pro Shops Night Race at Bristol Motor Speedway (TN); and Sunday, November 1st in the Xfinity 500 at Martinsville Speedway (VA)

Now is the time to start planning lodge watch parties to cheer Ross on and invite qualified friends, relatives and guests to get in on the excitement. Check the Moose International website (www.mooseintl.org) for information throughout the season.

New Member Orientation Attendance

Has your lodge been entering attendees for new member orientations? Instructions on how lodges can do so are attached. In order for members to get credit for attending an orientation on their individual records, lodges must first enter them as attendees on LCL Web. This is also one of the requirements for members to reach the first level in the Fraternal Recognition Program.
