

KURT T. WIEBE

Kurt T. Wiebe serves as Director of the Membership Department and Chief Marketing Officer for Moose International, having been named to this post effective Oct. 22, 2012. He is responsible for all member-production and –retention efforts, and guiding and supervising the Membership Department’s field staff. Additionally, he is responsible for both internal and external marketing endeavors for Moose International, Mooseheart, Moosehaven and Moose Charities—including all Moose websites.

From early 2004 to early 2006, Kurt served Moose International as Vice President of Fraternal Operations. He has also served in a number of association-management positions for various trade and professional associations based in the Chicago area, including the Illinois Manufacturers’ Association and the National Association of Realtors.

Kurt is a member of Mooseheart Lodge 2655, and Mecca Moose Legion 9. He was graduated from Ball State University in Muncie, IN in 1979 with a bachelor’s degree in marketing and communications.

Kurt and his wife Karen are the parents of three children; the Wiebes reside in St. Charles, IL.

###