LIGUORI V. SALADIN

Past Supreme Governor Liguori V. Saladin serves as a member of the Pilgrim Council of the Loyal Order of Moose. He was appointed to this post in 2011 at the 123rd International Convention in Anaheim.

Liguori was elected Supreme Governor, the fraternity's chief presiding officer, in May 2009 at the 121st International Convention in Chicago. He had served as Supreme Jr. Governor during 2008-09, Supreme Prelate during 2007-08, and was originally elected to the Supreme Council, the fraternity's corporate Board of Directors, in 2001. He had previously served on the Moosehaven Board of Directors from 1992 to 2001.

Liguori joined the Moose in 1968 as a member of Tampa, FL Lodge 1146. He served all chairs, including that of Governor. Liguori was instrumental in instituting North Hillsboro Lodge 1741 and served as its Secretary for four years and Trustee for two years. He also helped institute Land O'Lakes Lodge 1903 and served as Secretary until 1985, when he moved to become Administrator of St. Petersburg Lodge 1145, from which he retired in 1998. He holds Life Membership in St. Petersburg 1145 and North Hillsboro 1741.

A member of Orange Blossom Moose Legion 125, Liguori served as North Moose in 1976-77. He became a Life Member of the Moose Legion in 1977. He has served the Florida/Bermuda Moose Association as District President, Prelate, Vice President, and President; and as Association Secretary since 1985.

At the International level, Liguori served as Assistant Outer Guard, Inner Guard, and Sgt.-at-Arms at various International Conventions. A member of the 250 division of the Moose 25 Club, he was awarded the Fellowship Degree of Honor in 1976, and the Pilgrim Degree of Merit in 1984.

Now retired, Liguori previously worked for the Tampa Police Department. He resides in Tampa. A widower, he is the father of 13 children, and grandfather of 30 more.
